Subject: Request for visit to S Chand Group Press

Season's Warmest Greetings from JIMS!

This is to request you to grant permission to students of Department of Communication Studies and BBA (bachelor of Business Administration) to visit your highly esteemed organization and be able to observe printing of the Books or supplements at any date and time convenient to you in the month of September or October, 16. This time we will be looking for 02 visits as the batch is big. Print Journalism is part of curriculum in first & second year for students of Journalism.

It gives me immense pleasure to inform you that JIMS, Vasant Kunj New Delhi is affiliated to Guru Gobind Singh IP university. By way of an update on JIMS, JIMS group of higher educational institutions was founded in 1997 by the Jagannath Gupta Memorial Educational Society (Regd.) for providing holistic education to the youth of Delhi, in particular, and the country, in general. Ever since then, the Society has established 8 institutes of excellence in Delhi and NCR to impart professional and technical education in the cutting edge disciplines of management studies, information technology, mass communication, engineering, hospitality and hotel management. Apart from these, the Society has established 3 more campuses in Rajasthan, on one of which is located Jagannath University, a private university established through an Act of the Rajasthan Assembly.

Eagerly looking forward to your reply. In anticipation of favourable response.

My self Ms. Sushmita Jaipurkar(Manager Placement) would like to put the request for our MASS COMMUNICATION students visit to AJKMCRC.A formal request is attached below.Hope for long & strong association of JIMS with your esteemed organization.
